Dear Friends and Prayer Partners,

I want to live for God's purposes;
I want to make my life count for eternity!

That's why I became a missionary with Child Evangelism Fellowship® (CEF®) in 1998 and in 2001 went to Namibia Africa for 12 years to evangelize children, disciple them in the Word of God, and encourage them to attend a Bible-teaching church. Thousands of children and adults believed in Jesus because God drew them to Himself.

I believe in the importance of teaching children how to be saved and to live to please God. Why? Because I saw their lives changed. This is what CEF ministries are all about.

I contacted Jeff Kiser, the State Director of CEF of Washington, to see if there is a place of ministry for me in CEF of Washington. Jeff asked what I want to do. My gifting from God and my desire is: (1) to teach kids the Gospel and the Bible; and (2) to train others to teach kids the same. Teaching kids is done in CEF through the Good News Club® (a weekly Bible club during the school year) and 5-Day Club® (a week-long Bible club in the summer). Training others is done through seminars and courses throughout the year to equip people to teach kids in Bible clubs or church classes.

Jeff agreed there is a need for the two areas I mentioned, but also a need for someone with experience to help other CEF staff to develop their skills and increase their effectiveness in the ministry. So Jeff added: (3) to be a ministry mentor to new and existing staff members in the state.

On May 2nd, the CEF of Washington State Board approved me for the new position of “Staff Coach and Trainer.”

So here I go again, embarking on my next phase of missionary service for God and the children of Washington State! I need to find out who God has planned to be on my support team:

- Will you pray on a regular basis?
- Will you give financially?
- Would you like to receive updates of this ministry?

I would like to have many prayer partners to uphold me to the Lord. I need to raise $1,914 monthly support from donors. I want to keep my friends and supporters updated on the progress of the ministry. If God is leading you to become part of my ministry support team, please fill out the commitment form at my website or print out the attached commitment form, complete it and mail it to the address listed on the form.

In God’s Service,

Linda
